Provincial visit of the Young Parliamentarians Forum to Balochistan (23rd -24th July, 2025)

The Young Parliamentarians Forum (YPF), led by President Syeda Nosheen Iftikhar, visited the Balochistan Assembly. They engaged with the Speaker, MPAs, Chief Minister, and Governor of Balochistan to discuss youth challenges, media representation, and collaborative youth empowerment. Key outcomes included plans for joint workshops, academic partnerships, women's electoral participation, youth inclusion in budgeting, and combating misinformation. A panel discussion at BUITEMS emphasized youth-led reforms and career guidance. The delegation held a press conference at Quetta Press Club, urging civil society and media to counter misinformation and promote peace. YPF pledged ongoing collaboration to strengthen youth participation and peacebuilding in Balochistan.

Briefing Session of the Young Parliamentarians Forum Members with the National Vocational & Technical Training Commission (NAVTTC)

On 11th August 2025, the Young Parliamentarians Forum (YPF), in collaboration with NAVTTC, held a briefing session at Parliament House, chaired by Syeda Nosheen Iftikhar. NAVTTC Executive Director Mr. Muhammad Aamir Jan outlined key initiatives, including skills development courses, training projects, and the National Skills Registry, all aimed at aligning vocational education with industry demands. The session underscored YPF's commitment to developing a skilled workforce, supporting economic growth, and empowering Pakistani youth through effective public-private partnerships and training programs.

Panel discussion on enhancing Parliamentary studies as a discipline by integrating constitutional knowledge and parliamentary practices into the curriculum to foster democratic values among youth

On 8th September 2025, Syeda Nosheen Iftikhar, MNA/President YPF, chaired a panel at the National Conference on Teaching, Research, and Writing about Parliament held at PIPS. She emphasized integrating the 1973 Constitution and parliamentary practices into education to promote democratic values and skilled parliamentary professionals. The discussion highlighted the need for textbooks representing Pakistan's diversity and fostering the rule of law, accountability, tolerance, and social justice. This initiative supports

National Assembly efforts to strengthen parliamentary studies and democratic governance through enhanced education and research.

Meeting with Shaoor Foundation for Education (SFEA) and Awareness and UN Women

A meeting chaired by Syed Shamoon Hashmi on September 12, 2025, with SFEA and UN Women focused on enhancing parliamentary research through a dedicated journal and online repository in partnership with HEC and PIPS. Key discussions included linking Young Parliamentarians with academia, institutional reforms like formalizing the Whip's role, and collaboration on strengthening laws against gender-based violence and cybercrime. Youth engagement through internships with stipends and social media involvement was also proposed. The meeting concluded with agreed actions for SFEA to revise its workplan, coordinate with UN Women, and develop structured internship and mentorship programs, aiming for greater impact in parliamentary research, youth inclusion, and legislative reforms

Call on with the Maldivian delegation

On 18th September 2025, Syeda Nosheen Iftikhar, President Young Parliamentarians Forum, warmly welcomed the Maldivian parliamentary delegation at Islamabad's Parliament House. The meeting focused on strengthening youth cooperation and parliamentary engagement between Pakistan and the Maldives. They discussed creating a Pakistan-Maldives Youth Parliamentary Dialogue to tackle youth unemployment, education, climate action, and digital innovation. Both sides agreed to support the formation of a Young Parliamentarians Forum in the Maldives and enhance collaboration through scholarships, training, and youth exchanges. The partnership aims to empower youth, promote climate diplomacy, and deepen parliamentary ties.
